

PENNSYLVANIA.

---

MEMORIAL

OF

INHABITANTS OF NORTHAMPTON COUNTY,

In favor of rechartering the United States Bank.

---

MAY 26, 1834.

Read, and laid upon the table.

---

To the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America :

The memorial of divers citizens of Northampton county, in the commonwealth of Pennsylvania,

RESPECTFULLY REPRESENTS :

That your memorialists have observed, with deep concern, the commercial embarrassment and private pecuniary distress which is every where presented throughout our heretofore prosperous country. That to your memorialists, as a commercial, agricultural, and manufacturing people, the derangement of the moneyed resources of the country is particularly alarming and injurious. That it is within the knowledge of your memorialists that very great distress prevails throughout the country; that private credit is greatly impaired, and public confidence almost entirely destroyed. That your memorialists attribute these evils principally to the injudicious interference of the General Government with the financial concerns of the country; to the refusal of the Executive to sanction the bill rechartering the Bank of the United States, and to the removal of the public deposits from said Bank.

Your memorialists would therefore recommend to your honorable bodies the passage of a bill rechartering the Bank of the United States under such modifications as your wisdom may suggest, and that a bill be also passed directing the public deposits to be restored to that institution.

And your memorialists, &c.

